Esta sí tenemos que bailararla is a tragicomic and rogue road-movie in which two women in their forties decide to run away from their lives for one night. An acid comedy full of rhythm, sharp dialogues and moments that go from the intimate to the explosive. A journey as honest as it is wild through bars and cinematic highways in which its two protagonists share a late-night bout with their doubts, their cheating nostalgia and their desire to live it -and drink it- all in.
