Concert produced by Diane Warren, Ray Costa and David Doncel

A pioneer. One of the best female composers in history. She has received fourteen nominations to the Academy Awards, receiving the Honorary Oscar this year. She has won two Golden Globes, a Grammy, an Emmy, and three Billboard Awards. She was inducted into the Songwriters Hall of Fame and received a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Some of the best ballads in film history hold her signature. She has composed megahits such as 'Because you love me' for Celine Dion, 'How do I Live' for Leann Rimes, 'I don't want to miss a thing' for Aerosmith, 'Nothing's gonna stop us now' for Starship or 'Un -Break my heart' for Toni Braxton.
A musical journey through her rich and long career, featuring arrangements by the Ferrando Brothers that will turn this concert into a unique and unrepeatable experience.
If you love movie songs, it's a concert you can't miss.
