PABLO and ALBERTO MARTOS ARE THE WINNERS OF THE ANDALUSIAN REGIONAL GOVERNMENT'S ANDALUCÍA JOVEN SOLIDARITY AWARDS FOR THEIR MUSICAL

SOLIDARITY PROJECTS

Camerata Garnati presents Efímera, a concert that stands out for its innovative proposal and its combination of new and classical works. Conducted by Pablo Martos, the orchestra will perform three new works created by young composers, recently premiered worldwide, with the participation of the international flutist Michael Form in Adagio, by Fernando Javier Carmona, and Siringa, by José Manuel Ortega. The programme will also include Tensión y fuga, by Pedro Osuna, a fusion of tradition and cinematographic aesthetics with Alberto and Pablo Martos as soloists. The last piece of the concert will be Serenade for strings, by P.I. Tchaikovsky, establishing a contrast between the new compositions and an emblematic piece from the European repertoire.

Camerata Garnati is a dynamic professional orchestra founded and conducted by the violinist, composer and cultural facilitator Pablo Martos. Its activity focuses on rescuing forgotten works, disseminating musical cultural heritage and promoting music as a tool for wellbeing, linking music with the arts.

Trained in Spain, Germany and Austria, Pablo Martos has gained ample recognition following his participation in David Barenboim's West-Eastern-Diván. He is currently full professor at the Higher Conservatory of Music Victoria Eugenia of Granada.
