El Comité was founded as a result of two concerts performed in 2017, in the French city of Toulouse, by seven young musicians, winners of multiple awards in and outside Cuba. Having demonstrated their excellence as international jazz instrumentalists, together they succeed in blending Afro Cuban roots and jazz with complex, energetic and fluid arrangements and renditions.
El Comité is the continuity of the long history of Cuban music; transmission from one generation to the next is still crucial on the island, which is why tribute is paid to past generations–Chucho Valdes, Emiliano Salvador, Gabriel Hernandez...– and to other universal artists like Miles Davis, from which the group evolves with spontaneity and creative energy.
El Comité aims to be the ideal opportunity that allows these young artists to express themselves freely.
