Sofia has been punished in her room when all of a sudden the light goes out in the whole neighbourhood. Sofia is scared of darkness and calls her father, but King Basilio appears instead. He will take Sofia to the oneiric world of Life is a dream, where she will meet Segismund and learn that you don't get far if you behave badly, but if you do things well life can be completely different.

After his work with the Compañía Nacional de Teatro Clásico National Classic Theatre Company, in 2017 actor and director Jose Carlos Cuevas created the company Jóvenes Clásicos. Based in Malaga, the company is devoted to reviewing classic texts from a contemporary perspective, with a special focus on social themes.

Founded in 2017, TanTonTería Teatro brings together two actors who have a common denominator: to make the audience laugh. Thus, this mixture of laughter, emotion and the blend of gestural and textual techniques is their proposal for a better
