Argentina is a major flamenco figure with countless awards and recognitions who has performed at venues such as the Oslo World Music Festival, the Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles and the Lisbon Flamenco Festival, with two Latin Grammy nominations that have enhanced her international renown. Argentina's sixth album, a very important project for the flamenco singer born in Huelva, is volume 36 of the anthology Así canta nuestra tierra en Navidad, which has been recorded for 36 years with singers such as La Paquera de Jerez, Moraíto Chico, Rocío Jurado, Juan Villar, José Mercé, La Macanita, Fernando Terremoto Hijo, Carmen Linares and Ángel Vargas, among many others.
Christmas and flamenco are an exceptional combination in Andalusia, Spain and the entire world. Argentina is very proud of being a part of history with this recording, in which she wanted to revise tradition and capture her way of understanding and interpreting traditional bulerías, tangos and fandangos of Huelva, the alegrías of Cádiz, as well as the tanguillos and lullabies, in addition to new compositions that she will present with her spectacular voice.
