The success that preceded the album LomboXBambino has led the musician from Seville to publish a record of versions in which major themes of the past and present musical panorama are brought closer to his style, with versatility and elegance as well as careful staging and a group of twelve musicians that gives a flamenco-like character to the whole repertoire.
Manuel Lombo is a complete artist with a charisma that comes across through his strong stage presence. Trained with Naranjito de Triana and José de la Tomasa –in other words, a heir to the tradition– but situated beyond flamenco orthodoxy, the artist from Seville is singular, unique; something else, as confirmed by his new show.
Free, incomparable, Manuel Lombo is a musical experience in himself.
