"Two bodies breathing in everything around them. Two bodies that appreciate what they do not know, two bodies that emerge, grow and discover each other's tender life through fun and games and curiosity. Tú y yo, and dance... for small hearts in love with life.

Tú y yo is dormant in places that are common to persons who, by sharing them, manifest themselves, places that make us better when we recognise them (...) In Tú y

yo we celebrate diversity and make inclusion our standard.” David Ojeda
For 24 years, DA.TE Danza has been creating, producing and putting on contemporary dance, dance-theatre and object theatre shows geared at young audiences, ranging from early childhood to adolescents. With 27 shows premiered to date, it is one of the longest-standing dance companies in Andalusia. Its proposals are always committed to present day society, telling girls and boys, adolescents and families stories on which to reflect.
