Victor Monge 'Serranito', "the guitarist of guitarists", as defined by the journalist and writer specialised in flamenco José Manuel Gamboa, is back on stage to celebrate with the audience his career of 65 years and at the same time to say good-bye the way he knows best: playing the guitar and expressing his feelings through its six chords. A farewell which Victor Monge embraces with enthusiasm and which marks the end of an artistic career full of success around the world. In the different cities included in the tour, Serranito will be introduced by a guest artist representing each one.

A self-taught flamenco guitarist and composer from Madrid with extraordinary technical skills and unusual focus on his artistic evolution and development, Victor Monge Serranito is considered to be one of the most charismatic guitar virtuosos of history.
