Padre Nuestro is a vibrant and poignant show that pays tribute to the unforgettable Pascual González –singer, composer and founder of the group Cantores de Híspalis– whose talent and creativity have left an indelible mark on the world of music in general and the music of brotherhoods in particular. Pascual González contributed significantly to promote and enhance the repertoire of brotherhood music for which he created extraordinary compositions. Padre nuestro revives iconic moments of productions such as Sevilla reza cantando, La Pasión según Andalucía and Cristo. Pasión y esperanza in a context in which music, faith, tradition and hope are uniquely intertwined.

A tribute to a musical genius, to the cultural and spiritual richness of Andalusia, and an opportunity to feel the intensity and beauty of brotherhood music, an artistic expression that transcends borders and touches the hearts of those who listen to it.
