Since 2015, Farru, the middle child of the Farrucos family, has been bringing the whole family together for Christmas with this show. Focused on feelings and values such as kindness, generosity, the ability to share, to celebrate getting together once again and enjoy unique moments with one’s loved ones, the show is renovated every year with new choreographies, cast of characters and repertoire. Los Farrucos’ performance combines the magic of Christmas, the story of a family of great tradition and the creation of a flamenco musical. Conceived for all ages, Un cuento de Navidad is an unforgettable explosion of emotions in which spectators (adults and children alike) feel that they have a role as real characters in this great universal Christmas celebration.
Los Farrucos are the fourth generation of one of the most important families of artists in the history of flamenco. They have travelled halfway around the world performing their art at major theatres. Now, the youngest ones join Un cuento de Navidad to tell us a touching story with a spectacular production.
