Prince Sigfrid, captivated by the beauty of Princess Odette, who is converted into a swan by Von Rothbard, promises to save her although he too will be a victim of the wicked magician's curse. Only true love will break the spell.

The great classical ballets with the music of P.I. Tchaikovsky began their triumphal journey in 1877. More than 100 years ago Diaghilev's company won international fame for the name 'ballets russes'. The Ballet Clásico Internacional company offers us its versions of these major classics with magnificent international soloists.
