The lawyer Marinetti is an implacable and bitter woman who has filed complaints against nearly the entire neighbourhood. Her life changes the day in which Omar, a young refugee, falls from a branch of her walnut tree. Omar completely transforms her life, and in order to keep him, she tells him that he is a nut, and according to an ancient law, everything that falls in her garden is hers. The judge and the public prosecutor listen to the witnesses. Meanwhile, Omar recalls how he had to flee from a country at war and how he lost his parents at sea.
Indisputable benchmark of Catalan family theatre for what they have been, what they are and what they still have to be, the company Zum-Zum Teatre celebrates its fourth decade fulfilling the slogan of putting on pieces “for all audiences from the age of four”.
