Nasu and Basi are embarking on a great adventure. This time they are looking for a treasure hidden in the midst of rubbish on Cacatoa Island. Will they find it among so much rubbish? Do not miss this story about the environment, nature and recycling. Susana Fernández and Monti Cruz have been working with prestigious Andalusian companies, including Acuario Teatro, Acuario Teatro, Anthares Teatro, Pata Teatro and El Espejo Negro, for more than 30 years. They participated with the latter in the shows La vida de un piojo llamado Matías and El fantástico viaje de Jonás el espermatozoide, winners of the 2009 and 2012 Max Award for Best Children's Show, respectively. In 2015, they created a company in Malaga called Petit Teatro, with which they have specialised in theatre for children and families, addressing different topics with diverse theatrical techniques.
